Anti-Oppression Consultant for BTS

Since the 1980s, the Maritimes-Guatemala Breaking the Silence Network (BTS) has sought to respond to the needs and issues defined by our Guatemalan partners based on the principles of relationship-building, solidarity and mutuality. As a grassroots network with this shared commitment, we undertake initiatives such as advocacy, public education and cross-cultural learning. We know that anti-racism and anti-oppression are central to solidarity work. We also recognize the need for our Network to engage in deep reflection and analysis, in order to integrate more critical justice affirming, anti-racist, and anti-oppressive practices into our work.

In 2017, BTS hosted a one-day Diversity and Inclusion Workshop with staff, representatives from our local committees and members of our working committees (Finance, Personnel, etc.). Since then, we've explicitly made diversity and inclusion a priority in our work. We've taken some initial steps; however, we recognize that as a primarily volunteer run network that we need additional support. As such, we are currently looking for someone to support our efforts in continuing this work and to facilitate a process that guides us to tangible tools that can help refine our practice of solidarity within an anti-oppression framework.

The overall goal of this is to build and strengthen our community through guided reflection and analysis of where we are currently with regards to anti-oppressive practices, and develop guiding tools to move towards where we want to be.

Through previous anti-oppression work, some possible priorities have emerged, understanding that this consultancy may not address all of these priorities depending on their approach and timeframe:

1. Identify BTS-specific needs for advancing this work
2. Present a framework for implementation and integration of anti-oppression practice across BTS' work
3. Develop and implement a train-the-trainer workshop on anti-oppression and inclusion for network members, along with how-to-use guide, as well as tools for monitoring & evaluating the progress of this work
4. Support BTS to develop an anti-oppression policy along with tools for implementation (ie. checklist, evaluation template for follow-up) and monitoring

We understand this is a long-term process. We hope that as part of our initial work together, we can identify the most pressing priorities and develop a plan to address all issues and priorities over time.
